Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

The Hope of the Rebels.

Mr. Yancey recently said in the Alabama legislature that they (the rebels) had something to hope from divisions in the councils of their enemies—from the fierce party strife and jealousies at the north.

No doubt this hope has given the rebels strength for months past. They have seen the copperhead party denounce the war and all persons who are for a vigorous prosecution of it, and their hearts have been made glad, and their arms strengthened to meet our armies and slaughter our sons and brothers in the field.

Not only have the rebels received aid and comfort in this manner, but the friends of the country have been weakened by the discouragements which such a state of things naturally induce. Our soldiers in their camps have also caught the infection of dismay and fear from this cause, and have felt that there was danger menacing their families and friends, and have expected to be called upon to return and protect them from the rebels at home.

It is as clear as the sun at noonday that those men who, with knowledge of the consequences of their acts, have given this indirect hope and strength to the rebels by their assaults upon the government upon all occasions, while they have had no word of condemnation for the murderous rebels in arms—are traitors to their country. Impartial history will pronounce their acts treasonable, and they will be looked upon in future times as more guilty than the traitors of the revolution.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.—The President has issued his proclamation commanding deserters from the army to return to their regiments before the first of April or suffer the penalties of the law, one of which may be death. It is estimated that there are 100,000 deserters from the army, and should they all be returned it would go a long way towards rendering a draft unnecessary. Those who have incited soldiers to desert are also to be punished. Fair warning is given in the proclamation to those traitors who are preparing to resist the conscription law. They will be attended to when overt acts are committed. The machinery of the law is such that there will be no failure in this respect. A close and attentive reading of the proclamation will disclose the fact that there is a general warning to all who have been giving aid and comfort to the enemy in any way, to cease from their disloyal course and support the legally constituted authorities of the government.

INCREASE OF PAY.—The salaries of collectors and assessors are raised by the amendments to the revenue law. Collectors are allowed one-tenth of one per cent. on all sums collected over $400,000 in any one year, providing the salary does not exceed $5,000 exclusive of office expenses. Assessors are allowed a fixed salary of $1,600, with an additional allowance for clerical hire, office rent, postage blanks, and stationery. Also, where the receipts of the district exceed $200,000, one per cent. on such excess of receipts.

RAIL.—We hope that every farmer will cultivate a crop of flax the coming season. The scarcity of cotton is an excellent reason for doing this. An acre of land will produce about ten bushels of seed, worth now about $3 per bushel, and from one to two tons of straw, which will be worth full as much more. The land should be prepared the same as for oats, and the seed should be sown at about the same time as oats.

WE notice in the news from England that there are accounts of large anti-slavery meetings which pass resolutions sympathizing with the north. Would it not be more pertinent and practical, just now, to also give their opinion of the conduct of the British government in permitting pirates to be fitted out in their harbors to prey upon northern commerce?

It is suggested that the rebels were after their bitters when they captured our Gen. Stoogton at Fairfax Court House, the other night. However that may have been, it was a bitter thing for the general, whose nomination for a brigadier-generalship was awaiting confirmation in the senate; that body, upon hearing of the affair, laid his nomination aside.

A FULL-BLOODED TRAITOR.—Tom Seymour, the copperhead candidate for governor of Connecticut, has written a letter acknowledging the authorship of a treasonable letter, found in possession of a fellow by the name of Gladding—a rebel blockade runner, who was captured a few days since. The initials "T. H. S." were attached to the letter.

THE AUTHOR OF THE TROUBLE.—The Detroit Tribune says—"Faulkner, the man guilty of the foul crime which so incited the fiendish malice of the rioters, it now appears, is not a negro. He is a dark skinned man, with blue eyes and straight hair, and claims to be a Spanish Indian. He has never associated with negroes, never allowed them to enter his saloon, and has always exhibited great hostility to the African race. He has been a registered voter in the third ward of Detroit, and always voted the democratic ticket—in fact a genuine copperhead."

Last Night's Report.

DESMOINES, Iowa, March 9.

A general order has been issued by Gen. Craig, directing the provost marshals and other officers within his district, to arrest as spies or deserters all persons found wearing the United States uniform without proper passes, orders or discharges.

NEW YORK, March 9.

The New Orleans Era, of February 25th, publishes the following: "We learn on good authority that the establishment at Clinton, La., for the manufacture of arms, ammunition, &c., was totally destroyed by fire about two weeks since. The loss to the rebels is particularly severe at this time, as the troops in that section have been very scarcely supplied, their officers depending upon the capacity of their works at Clinton to furnish them. The difficulties alluded to by the Confederate secretary of war, would be greatly increased by the disaster."

It is reported that the Harriet Lane can never be of any use to the rebels. They have no machine shop in Texas at which she can be repaired. Her port shaft is bent six inches out of line, and two of the flanges on her port wheel are burst. She was thus completely disabled by the last shell thrown by the Waquo.

WASHINGTON, March 9.

The following nominations were confirmed by the senate in executive session: John F. Potter, of Wisconsin, to be governor of Dacotah territory.

Although we have confidence in the Union and its subdue, the rebels yet; as the rebels have employed slaves, first in making their fortifications, and more recently in arms, we approve the policy of maring slaves, to meet slaves in battle.—Nor do we fight to free the slaves, but we free the slaves to stop the fight.

To be brigadier generals of volunteers: John Buford, Col. Francis C. Barlow, Col. N. J. Jackson, Capt. Governor Warren of topographical engineers, Col. John H. Howard, Col. Solomon Meredith, of the 10th Indiana volunteers, Maj. Gen. Andrews to rank as brigadier general of volunteers from Nov. 28th, 1862, Col. James Bards, of the 12th Mass., Brig. Gen. E. Brown, of the Missouri state militia, Capt. Cowin Ayrch, of the artillery, Col. Jacob Ammon of the 24th Ohio volunteers, Stephen D. Chapman, of Michigan, McCracken, of the 13th Iowa, Col. Wm. Doughty, of the 70th N. Y. volunteers, Col. G. W. Deitzler, of Kansas, Col. Dodge, of 1st N. Y. mounted rifled, Col. H. E. Wing, 4th Ohio volunteers, Col. F. T. Leonard, of 5th Kentucky volunteers, Col. W. M. Hazen, of 4th Ohio volunteers, Col. E. W. Hinck, of 19th Mass. volunteers, Col. Wm. Morrow, of 14th Indiana, Col. A. L. Y. infantry, Col. G. D. Wagner, of 15th Ind., Col. J. D. Webster, of 1st Ill., Col. John H. McNeil, Missouri state militia, R. A. Buckley, of Ohio, Col. Sam. Beattie, of 19th Ohio volunteers, Col. Edward H. Hobson, of 13th Ky. volunteers, Col. M. D. Leggett, of 19th Ohio volunteers, Col. Mason Brayman, of 27th Ill. volunteers, Col. J. L. Macom, of 4th Ohio, Col. T. E. G. Ransom, of 11th Ill. vol., Col. Wm. Vandever, of 9th Iowa vol., Col. Wm. H. Carlin, of 9th Ill., Col. L. Cutler, of 6th Wis. vol.

Maj. Gen. Fremont was this morning before the committee on the conduct of the war.

TUESDAY, March 10.

SENATE.—A debate on the Ozaeke riot resolutions occupied the entire session. The bill enabling volunteers in the military service to vote for judges was passed.

ASSEMBLY.—Several local and some general bills of which the title affords no indication of their provisions, were passed. The general file was taken up in committee of the whole. Mr. Hyatt's copperhead New England memorial was discussed, but nothing done with it.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.—The President has issued his proclamation commanding deserters from the army to return to their regiments before the first of April or suffer the penalties of the law, one of which may be death. It is estimated that there are 100,000 deserters from the army, and should they all be returned it would go a long way towards rendering a draft unnecessary. Those who have incited soldiers to desert are also to be punished.

Fair warning is given in the proclamation to those traitors who are preparing to resist the conscription law. They will be attended to when overt acts are committed.

The machinery of the law is such that there will be no failure in this respect. A close and attentive reading of the proclamation will disclose the fact that there is a general warning to all who have been giving aid and comfort to the enemy in any way, to cease from their disloyal course and support the legally constituted authorities of the government.

NEW YORK, March 10.

The steamer Roanoke, from New Orleans, March 1st, and Havana, the 5th, has arrived.

Information has been filed in the provincial court of the confiscation of Slidell's property in New Orleans.

The Queen of the West prisoners are reported to be zealously guarded at Alexandra, Ark. They have been robbed of their clothes and private property.

The New Orleans Era of the 1st states that twenty rebels who were recently sent through the rebel lines have returned, begging to be allowed to take the oath of allegiance, and for bread. All were suffering acute hunger, and the children crying for food. They give a fearful statement of the distortion in rebellion.

Later Vera Cruz advices received at New Orleans state that the French army was entirely inactive, being unable to accomplish anything without large reinforcements, which, if not soon received, they must be driven from the country. The climate is operating unfavorably upon the soldiers. The French officers are disillus-ioned. The bulk of the army is near Puebla.

The country between there and New Mexico is infested with guerrillas well armed and mounted. Whole trains of supplies from Vera Cruz are captured. The French are constructing a railroad to Puebla, and the guerrillas are amusing themselves by spreading the rails, to run the trains off the track.

CAIRO, March 10.

Special to Chicago Journal.—The steamer Nebraska has arrived, bringing Memphis dates to the 7th. Nothing was transpiring at the fleet at Young's Point of importance.

The latest news from there is to Thursday.

The rebels were throwing in an occasional blast at the workmen on the canal opposite

Vicksburg, but doing no damage.

The dredging machines were still working.

As passengers on the Nebraska are Capt.

Sutherland, late of the Queen of the West,

and his wife. They go north.

NEW YORK, March 10.

A Havana letter of the 5th says: "The steamer Ocean Herald reports seeing on the 24th the wreck of a steamer painted black, twenty-two miles from Abaco light-house. The stern smokestacks only were visible—no signs of life. Near her, on the same day, the schooner picked up two waters.

CINCINNATI, March 9.

The Gazette has news from Vicksburg of Tuesday: "Everything is looking well.

It is thought all the canals will be successful. Gunboats will soon be able to pass through the canal opposite Vicksburg.

There is no doubt of our ability to get our forces in the rear of Vicksburg, and cut off their communication with Jackson."

NEW YORK, March 11.

The Tribune special from Washington says that the committee of the chamber of commerce had an interview with the President, yesterday, at which they urged him to make arrangements forthwith to issue letters of marque and reprisal under the recent act of congress. Their arguments are understood to have made a strong impression upon Mr. Lincoln; a contrary view, however, was subsequently urged by senators who were prominent in opposition to the passage of the law; they presented to the President the dangers of foreign war in case he should do what is asked of him. The subject is understood to have been before the cabinet at its meeting, to-day.

NEW YORK, March 11.

Times Washington dispatch says that nine citizens of Fairfax were arrested there, to-day, and sent to the Old Capitol prison, charged with having piloted rebels in the late raid upon that place. The rebels who entered Fairfax on Monday, just saved their distance in escaping with their plunder, Col. Johnson following after them with a cavalry force so sharp as to recapture 30 or 40 of the stolen horses.

It appears from a return just issued that the expense of the national debt of England, for interest and management, last year, was £23,328,014 6s 6d.

The greenhouse at Mount Vernon was burned on Friday of last week. The original greenhouse built by Washington was erected in 1837, and the one now destroyed was erected by Judge Bushrod Washington while he was the owner of Mt. Vernon, some forty years since.

The attorney general of Michigan has decided that under the constitution the legislature has power to provide for taking the votes of soldiers in the field.

A contemporary, landing "a well-known citizen" just elected to office, says: "He is one of the cleverest fellows that ever listed a hat to a lady or a boot to a blackguard."

ADVANCE IN IRON.—The iron manufacturers of Pittsburg, Wheeling, Youngstown, and Niles, held a convention at Pittsburg, last week, and decided to advance the price of nails three shillings per keg, of bar iron, a quarter of a cent per pound. Retail prices have advanced in proportion.

NEW SOLDIERS.—Vice-President Hamlin is said to be busily engaged in Maine in procuring white officers for the black brigade of Louisiana negroes. His own son will command one regiment.

It is stated, positively, at the navy department that the loss of the Indiana was wholly the result of Colonel or General Ellett's disobedience of his orders not to separate his command from the naval fleet he was supposed to be aiding.

The captain of a Newport, England, steamer recently picked up an abandoned East Indian at sea, towed her into port, and sold her cargo of teakwood and rice for £70,000.

WISCONSIN APPOINTMENTS.—Among the new military appointments are those of Brig. Gen. Hamilton as Major-General and Cols. Rager and Cutler as Brigadier General, of this state. In this vicinity, no appointment could give more general satisfaction than that of Gen. Rager.

RELIEF FOR SOLDIERS IN THE 22d REGIMENT.—Persons desirous of sending articles to their friends in the 22d regiment are requested to leave them at the following places, to-morrow forenoon: Dried fruits, jellies, etc., at Dearborn's bookstore or the Ladies' Aid Society room; and vegetables at Culb's grocery store. All articles will be packed to-morrow forenoon, and will be immediately forwarded to the regiment.

BOLD ROBBERY.—We learn from S. S. Northrop, Esq., of Ogden, that Wm. Snyder, merchant at that place, was robbed on Monday night. The robber entered his bed-room, took his watch, overcoat, and $75 and safe key from the pocket of his pantaloons. He then proceeded to Mr. Snyder's store, and by removing a light of glass opened the rear door, unlocked the safe and stole over $500 in money.

A VALUABLE HISTORY.—The first volume of Abbott's "History of the Civil War in America," has been distributed to subscribers in this vicinity, and has been received with satisfaction and approval. It contains eighteen maps and twenty steel engravings, illustrative of the events narrated and the persons prominent among the actors therein, and about 600 pages of letter press, written with the characteristic vigor and vivacity of the editor, who is well known as the most voluminous historical writer of our age and country. The work is well bound in arabesque leather, and will make a valuable and attractive addition to any library, either public or private. It contains by actual estimate, 68 percent more reading matter than any book of similar bulk yet published, and is the most succinct and accurate of any record of the war yet given to the public.

The leading markets today opened with a stronger feeling, owing to the advance in the gold. Wheat was 40 cent, and improved 30 cent, but closed quiet, the advance being scarcely maintained. No rice sold at 12¢ 27, No. 1 spring or $1.24 15, No. 2 spring at 12¢ 18, and raisins, spring at 9¢ 24 15. There was a limited trading for the lower grades of flour, at prices ranging from $3.00 14 23, good and prime grades are unchanged and nominal. Corn opened firm, with sales of mixed at 63¢ 20 24, but the corn at the market was weak at the incuse quotation for fresh receipts.

There was a great flurry for oats and the market ruled steady and firm at 7¢ 15 24. Rye was quiet but firm, with sales at 70¢ 82 24 for winter and fresh receipts.

Wheat was steady and firm at 12¢ 10, 20 for fair to good samples. Highwya Farmer, with sales at 12¢ 20.

Dressed hog in good demand and light supply, with sales at $1.00 14 20 to $1.05 20 per 100 for hams on 200 pounds.

A COUGH, GOLD, OR AN IRITATED THROAT If allowed to proceed, results in pulmonary and bronchial affection, and incipient tuberculosis. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES reach directly the affected parts and give almost instant relief. In Bronchitis, Asthma, and Coughs they are beneficial. The good effects resulting from the use of the Troches, and their extended use, has caused them to be counterfeited. He who guards against worthless imitations, gains the only genuine Brown's Bronchial Troches which have proved their efficacy by a test of many years. Public Speakers and Actors should use the Troches. Military Officers and Soldiers who over-tax this voice and are exposed to sudden changes should have them. Sold everywhere at 25 cents per box.
